NEWSLETTER JANUARY 2021

Welcome

Dear Partners & Friends!

We made it! Happy New Year to you and yours! I am very excited to be entering another year with you, honestly. It is honestly not an easy feat, but everything is easier with Christ. I thank my God on your and my behalf for deeming us worthy of entering the New Year. It is not because we are righteous or better than those who didn't make it. It is at his infinite grace and mercy that He decided that we are worthy and that he still has uses for us in the New Year! Rejoice, because God is about to use your case as a sample of why it pays to trust in Him!

Many had a strenuous 2020, but were able to keep it together through God. Do you have any struggle stories from last year? Do you have challenges that came into the New Year with you? Do you have pain points that you strongly wish to be eased from you this year? Do you have achievements you hope God pulls through for you? By the power of God, the same one who is and is to come, the same God who knew us before we were formed, all your heart desires will begin to manifest! His plans for your life will come to fruition!

As you look to receive from God this year, make sure you also give. Wear the garment of thanksgiving, because it is the only way you can get more. Help others in need no matter how small your contribution may seem. Be genuinely happy for others so that you can attract the awesome energy you give others. Above all, maintain hope amidst all the challenges that may come with the New Year. Always take each day reveling in the understanding that if God is for you, no one can be against you!

Our charge at Cornerstone "CMG" is helping others. We love to extend help to those who are not as privileged as we are. We love our neighbors, and we bless them as God has blessed us. Check out Cornerstone to find out how much help and inspiration you can be to others around the world.

Please feel free to leave us feedback. We would love to hear from you, it is always a pleasure. And, feel free to check us out on our social media at Cornerstone Mount Group!

Warm regards,
Rev. Akano, "CMG" Founder & CEO

NEW U.K COVID STRAIN DISCOVERED IN THE UNITED STATES: WHAT WE KNOW- MATT STIEB

Following the December 19 announcement that a new strain of the coronavirus started spreading in the United Kingdom, dozens of countries restricted travel from the island nation, as it shut down to stop the latest surge driven in part by the variant known as B.1.1.7

"This virus spreads more easily", the UK's chief scientific adviser Patrick Vallance said on December 19. "And therefore more measures are needed to keep it under control."

Though the virus strain is not expected to be resistant to the vaccines rolled out earlier this month, scientists are racing to learn more about the mutation — and where it has spread. Below is a primer for the public health and political ramifications of the concerning development.

The strain has been found in Colorado and California

On December 28 public health officials in Colorado confirmed that the first case of the more transmissible strain had been found in the state. The infected person is a man in his 20s who does not have a recent travel history. While public health officials are working to find other potential cases through contact tracing, the fact that the patient has not been to the UK suggests that the mutation is spreading within the state. "We can expect that it will be detected elsewhere", one official familiar with the contact tracing investigation told the Washington Post. On December 30 authorities identified the second "highly suspicious" case in the same county. On the same day Californian officials said that the strain was found in Southern California, though it may not be dominant as 29 other samples from the Los Angeles County did not show the strain present.

The Centers for Disease Control have previously warned that the UK variant may already be spreading in the United States, because there is still travel between the nations and because scientists have not sequenced the genetic coding of the vast majority of cases.

How is this COVID strain different?

The variant found in the UK, known as "VUI – 202012/01" was first identified there in mid September according to the World Health Organization. Its mutations have occurred on the genetic material that controls the spike protein, which allows COVID and other similar viruses to penetrate host cells, causing infection.

NEW YEAR, NEW YOU?

Happy New Year once again! After a tumultuous 2020 we finally arrived here. Is it the time of resolutions and grand plans for you? Is it the time of setting things in motion to achieve a smooth sailing year? Is it that time to promise yourself to make career or spiritual changes? Is it the time when you promise yourself to cut people off if they are not adding value to you? Is it the time for the traditional New Year, new me mantra we chant on a yearly basis?

Before you start with the new you, have you taken time to reflect on the old you? The surest way to remain in a vicious cycle of under development is not to learn from mistakes or creating excuses for mistakes made. Have you ever considered the fact that the turn of the year is not the best time to set resolutions? Have you ever considered taking stock of your life in the old year and kickstarting your mission to change things you are not comfortable with immediately?

Don't get me wrong, of course the New Year symbolizes new beginnings to many of us. But just as groundbreaking ideas are not born on one day, it takes a process! So New Year, New You? Those goals and aspirations? Let's get them!

PUZZLE

Of course, we won't miss the chance to make the puzzle about the festive period! Deck the halls! Enjoy our carefully curated puzzle!
